

October 2000

Dear Colleagues,

Call for Papers

It is our great pleasure to inform you of a journal that publishes original articles in the fields of computer sciences, computational physics and chemistry, computational biology and modeling and computation in engineering and technology:

Computational Methods in Science and Technology.

As Editors of Computational Methods in Science and Technology, we would like to invite you to submit your work for publication. You will be pleased to know that you may do so either electronically or traditionally in soft copy manuscript form (please go to <http://www.man.poznan.pl/cmst> for complete instructions).

Computational Methods in Science and Technology, publishes in print and on the web. Articles published on the web will appear weeks after the print edition.

In closing, allow us just to say if you are seeking a high-quality venue in which to publish your important work-quickly and effectively to a worldwide audience then Computational Methods in Science and Technology is the journal for you.

We look forward to receiving and reviewing your submission and thank you in advance for your contribution.

Sincerely Yours,
